

Music

Exam Board: BTEC First Award In Music

Question	Answer
What will I be assessed on?	Unit 1 – Music Industry Exam (January 2021 exam). Unit 2 – Creating a music product Unit 5 – Performance
How will I be assessed over the coming weeks and months?	Unit 1 – those who are resitting their exam will do their exam on 21/04/21 Unit 2 – Complete your three track recordings and then complete a review in an interview setting with your teacher. Unit 5 – Completed.
When will the assessments take place?	Unit 1 resits – 21/04/21 Unit 2 – all work to be submitted by 30/04/21 Unit 5 Handed in
What evidence will be used to create my portfolio?	Unit 1 Resits– Mocks and past papers that you have sat in class. Unit 2 – Your planning notes at the start of the project. Your tracks that you have recorded with any worksheet to go along side this. Finally, there will be a review of how you feel the unit went in an interview setting. Unit 5 –The planning of your smart targets, skills audit, learning logs/ diaries, videos of your progress, review of how you think it went.
What happens with my NEA?	The exam board will be checking the marks given based on the grades given to you, similar to previous years. The grades given for each unit is averaged out to get your overall grade.
What can I do to prepare?	Ensure you are present to every lesson and are engaging with your work. Make sure you meet all deadlines and have as much evidence as possible to support the grade that you deserve.